

2021 MALTA FORUM OF TEACHERS OF SPANISH

Saturday

8th MAY 2021

9:30 – 9:50: Welcome addresses

Hon. Dr. Justyne Caruana (Minister for Education)

H. E. Consuelo Femenía (Ambassador of Spain to Malta)

Professor Godfrey Baldacchino (Pro-Rector, International Development & Quality Assurance, University of Malta)

Professor Juan Antonio Garrido Ardila (Head of Department of Spanish and Latin American Studies, University of Malta)

9:50 – 10:25: ‘Employability and Language Education: Teaching Approaches’

Marga Menéndez-López (University of Bristol, UK)

10:30 – 11:10 ‘La enseñanza del español a grupos multiculturales y multilingües’

Antoinette Zammit Bugeja (University of Malta and Junior College)

11:15 – 12:15: The Present and Future of Spanish in Malta / Presente y futuro del español en Malta

The participants will be invited to engage in a discussion of the current challenges of teaching Spanish in Malta and of possible initiative to assist teachers and students.

12:25 – 13:00: ‘El juego y la simulación en la enseñanza ELE’

Dimitrinka G. Níkleva (Universidad de Granada, Spain)

Chaired by Alessia Cilia Portelli and Antoinette Zammit Bugeja

Organising Committee: Ester Parra (Spanish Embassy),
Antoinette Zammit Bugeja (UM), Alessia Cilia Portelli (UM),
Paulina Pérez Sosbilla (UM), J. A. Garrido Ardila (UM)

Please note each activity will be conducted in the language of its title. ‘The Present and Future of Spanish in Malta’ will in principle run in Spanish with any interventions in English always welcomed.

To receive the link to Zoom, please contact:

ester.parra@maec.es