ENTREPRENEURIAL SUPPORT ACT OF
27 SEPTEMBER 2013 (Ley 14/2013).

INTERNATIONAL MOBILITY SECTION

R&D&i AND TRAINING
RESIDENCE

What is the aim?

To facilitate the entry in Spain of non-EU nationals wishing to pursue training and research activities in the public or private sector.

Who is it for?

- Researchers.
- Scientific and technical staff.
- Teachers:
 - of universities.
 - of business schools.

How is it done?

Through a residence permit valid throughout Spain.

Where do I apply?

- The institution must apply for the permit from the Large Business and Strategic Groups Unit [Unidad de Grandes Empresas y Colectivos Estratégicos (UGE-CE)].
- Once the permit has been awarded, if the applicant is outside Spain, he or she must apply for an entry visa at the Spanish Consulate in his/her country of origin or residence.

What are the requirements and what documents are needed?

- General documents:
 - ID or passport.
 - Public or private health insurance taken out with a company operating in Spain.
 - Background check.
 - Proof of sufficient funds to support the applicant and members of his/her family during residence in Spain.
- Specific documents:
 1. Provide proof of the situation applicable to the contracting institution from those set out in Article 72 of Ley 14/2013:
 - Whether it is a body cited in the legislation (public university, state or regional public research entity, university or private entity in accordance with the first additional provision).
 - If it is a business entity or R&D&i centre established in Spain, a report is required from the DG Innovation and Competitiveness (Ministry of Economy and Competitiveness).
 - Whether it is a public or private body signatory to an agreement, under the provisions of the regulations.
 - Whether it is a centre or institute of higher education and research.
 - Whether it is a business school established in Spain.
 2. Submit the relevant documents certifying the professional relationship between the entity and the applicant.

What other benefits are there?

- A Residence and work permit valid anywhere in Spain.
- Joint processing for married couples and their children.
- No Economic Needs Test is applied.
- Streamlined processing:
 - Visas decisions are made and notified within 10 working days.
 - Decisions are made on residence permits within 20 days.
- Residence permit procedures are centralised at a single contact point: the Large Business and Strategic Groups Unit [Unidad de Grandes Empresas y Colectivos Estratégicos (UGE-CE)].
