1. Nature of the tasks

The expert will be involved in tasks linked to the implementation of the EU Emissions Trading System (ETS) on various aspects as foreseen in the ETS Directive (Directive 2003/87/EC). He/she will be involved in analytical tasks on the links between the EU ETS and energy policy. In the context of the Green deal, the expert will also provide support to the unit in the review of the EU ETS and the proposed Social Climate Fund and related negotiations and the preparation for their implementation. The expert's tasks will include working with colleagues on providing contributions and advice on different topics within the remit of the unit's work. This may include support to and close follow-up of Member States' implementation, conceptually developing and drafting policy papers and analyses, as well as liaising with other services such as the Secretariat-General, Directorates-General for Competition, Budget, Transport and Energy. It may also involve drafting of briefings and regulatory updates, involvement in workshops, presentations and outreach activities, contacts with industry and NGOs.

The post offers a stimulating experience in one of the core policy areas for this Commission and in a key instrument for implementing the Paris Agreement, the opportunity to contribute to the shaping, implementation and advancement of a policy of high importance to industry and the power sector, in a rapidly evolving climate policy context and with many links to other important policies and issues.

2. Main qualifications

a) Eligibility criteria

The following eligibility criteria must be fulfilled by the candidate in order to be seconded to the Commission. Consequently, the candidate who does not fulfil all of these criteria will be automatically eliminated from the selection process.

¹ These mentions are given on an indicative basis only (Art.4 of the SNE Decision).

- Professional experience: at least three years of professional experience in administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions which are equivalent to those of function group AD;
- Seniority: candidates must have at least one year seniority with their employer that means having worked for an eligible employer as described in Art. 1 of the SNE decision on a permanent or contract basis for at least one year before the secondment;
- Linguistic skills: thorough knowledge of one of the EU languages and a satisfactory knowledge of another EU language to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties. SNE from a third country must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of one EU language necessary for the performance of his duties.

b) Selection criteria

Diploma

- university degree or
- professional training or professional experience of an equivalent level in the field(s) : law or economics or political/social sciences.

Professional experience

A demonstrated track-record in implementation of legislation and policy development. Ideally, the candidate should have concrete experience in drafting briefings, policy documents and legislation. An experience in climate, energy or related policies would be a strong asset. Experience of negotiations and chairing meetings would also be an advantage. Well-developed strategic judgment, communication skills, willingness to learn as well as ability to grasp technical issues will be needed.

Language(s) necessary for the performance of duties

Excellent oral and written command of English is essential. Knowledge of one other or more official languages of the European Union would be an asset.

3. Submission of applications and selection procedure

Candidates should send their application according to the Europass CV format (<http://europass.cedefop.europa.eu/en/documents/curriculum-vitae>) in English, French or German only to the Permanent Representation / Diplomatic Mission to the EU of their country, which will forward it to the competent services of the Commission within the deadline fixed by the latter. The CV must mention the date of birth and the nationality of the candidate. Not respecting this procedure or deadlines will automatically invalidate the application.

Candidates are asked not to add any other documents (such as copy of passport, copy of degrees or certificate of professional experience, etc.). If necessary, these will be requested at a later stage. Candidates will be informed of the follow-up of their application by the unit concerned.

4. Conditions of the secondment

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008)6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision).

The SNE will remain employed and remunerated by his/her employer during the secondment. He/she will equally remain covered by the national social security system.

Unless for cost-free SNE, allowances may be granted by the Commission to SNE fulfilling the conditions provided for in Art. 17 of the SNE decision.

During the secondment, SNE are subject to confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest obligations, as provided for in Art. 6 and 7 of the SNE Decision.

If any document is inexact, incomplete or missing, the application may be cancelled.

Staff posted in a European Union Delegation are required to have a security clearance (up to SECRET UE/EU SECRET level according to Commission Decision (EU, Euratom) 2015/444 of 13 March 2015, OJ L 72, 17.03.2015, p. 53).

The selected candidate has the obligation to launch the vetting procedure before getting the secondment confirmation.

5. Processing of personal data

The selection, secondment and termination of the secondment of a national expert requires the Commission (the competent services of DG HR, DG BUDG, PMO and the DG concerned) to process personal data concerning the person to be seconded, under the responsibility of the Head of Unit of DG HR.B.1. The data processing is subject to the SNE Decision as well as the Regulation (EU) 2018/1725.

Data is kept by the competent services for 7 years after the secondment (2 years for not selected experts).

You have specific rights as a 'data subject' under Chapter III (Articles 14-25) of Regulation (EU) 2018/1725, in particular the right to access, rectify or erase your personal data and the right to restrict the processing of your personal data. Where applicable, you also have the right to object to the processing or the right to data portability.

You can exercise your rights by contacting the Data Controller, or in case of conflict the Data Protection Officer. If necessary, you can also address the European Data Protection Supervisor. Their contact information is given below.
