

CURRICULUM VITAE

Senén Florensa (1950).

Ph.D. in Economics, Graduate in Economics and in Law. He studied for his doctorate at the Université Paris I Panthéon-Sorbonne; as a Fulbright Scholar at New York University and at the Universidad Complutense de Madrid, where he presented his doctoral thesis in 1978 with the highest degree Sobresaliente Summa cum Laude.

Present Position:

- Ambassador Permanent Representative to UN and the International Organizations in Vienna.

As a career diplomat he has been:

- 1978- Advisory member at the Office of the Prime Minister, with Presidents Suárez and Calvo Sotelo.
- 1982- Director of the Cabinet. Instituto de Cooperación Iberoamericana ICI. Madrid.
- Assistant Delegate. Spanish Mission to UNESCO. Paris.
- 1986- Member of the Organizing Committee of the Barcelona Olympic Games COOB'92.
- 1992- Consul General in Berlin.
- 1996- Director General, Instituto d Cooperación con el Mundo Árabe, Mediterráneo y Países en Desarrollo (ICMAMPD). Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Madrid.
- 2000- Ambassador to Tunisia.
- 2004- Ambassador at large for the International Sports Cooperation.
- 2006- Director General and then Executive President. Instituto Europeo del Mediterráneo IEMed. Barcelona.
- 2017- Consul General in Rome.

He has been also:

- Professor of International Economics at the University Complutense in Madrid, Ramon Llull University in Barcelona and is a member of the Board of Rectors the University Antonio Nebrija in Madrid.

- He is the President of the EUROMESCO network of think-tanks for Euro-Mediterranean studies, composed of 106 Institutes from all Europe and the Arab World, sponsored by the European Commission since 1996.
- He was the President of the World Congress of Middle Eastern Studies WOCMES 2010. He is the author of numerous books and articles on international politics and international economics.