CULTURA SA NOBYEMBRE
CULTURA EN NOVIEMBRE

EL PRADO: PAST, PRESENT & FUTURE

Miguel Falomir, Director of the Museo Nacional del Prado, will explore the Prado's enduring role in preserving and sharing artistic heritage while highlighting its commitment to new perspectives and cultural exchange, including forthcoming exhibits featuring 19th-century Filipino artists.

Museo Ayala November 4, 3:00 PM

UNKNOWN FESTIVAL

Siargao-based Spanish DJ Don Rubio (Luca Savelkoul) talks about his journey and offers a two-session hands-on DJ workshop exploring the basics of mixing and DJ techniques fuelled by hypnotic energy beats and Ibiza-inspired energy.

UNKNOWN

Sessions Academy Manila, Poblacion Nov 6, 11:00 AM

PAPER CONSERVATION & RESTORATION

In the framework of the ACERCA programme, this workshop will be dedicated to nurturing cultural heritage professionals through hands-on training in paper conservation and restoration, in partnership with the National Archives of the Philippines.

National Archives of the Philippines November 9-13

CHARLAS DE LA ACADEMIA

In his talk Why Does the "Black Legend" Persist? Three Myths, Fernando Zialcita, anthropology professor at the Ateneo de Manila University, will examine traditional narratives about the country´s past under the Spanish Monarchy and propose a more nuanced understanding of this shared history

Instituto Cervantes, Intramuros November 10, 6:00 PM

ZARZUELA>SARSWELA

The musical celebration of the shared cultural heritage of Spain and the Philippines features Spanish pianist Belén Castillo and zarzuela singer María Rodríguez and local performers with a repertoire including selections from the works of Francisco Asenjo Barbieri, Pablo Sorozábal, among others.

University of Santo Tomas November 13 5:30 PM

EMBAJADA DE ESPAÑA EN FILIPINAS · aecid · ASESORÍA DE EDUCACIÓN ACCIÓN EDUCATIVA EXTERIOR · Instituto Cervantes

KULTURA SA NOBYEMBRE
KULTURA EN NOBIEMBRE

QCINEMA

QCinema International Film Festival, which runs from November 13 to 22, features two Spanish movies: Los tigres, a thriller and the People´s Choice Award in the recently-conlcuded film series Película>Pelikula, and El querido, a psychological family drama, both to be shown on November 20.

Quezon City Nov 13-22, Spanish films screening: November 20

WEBINARS

- DARIO VILLANUEVA — Nov 18, 6:00 PM
- NEBRIJA — Nov 24, 6:00 PM

EUROPEAN FAIR OF HIGHER EDUCATION

The European Higher Education Fair comes back this November under the motto "Pathways to excellenge. Building the future". Discover European higher education institutions and explore study opportunities,

Midtown Atrium, Robinsons Manila Nov 20-21

LORQUIANAS

In collaboration with the Universidad de Granada, the Cultural Center of the Philippines´ Tanghalang Ignacio Gimenez hosts this live theatrical performance that blends theatre, music and poetry to explore the feminine universe and the silenced figures in Lorca´s work.

CCP Blackbox, Manila Nov 25-26, 7:00 PM

INTERNATIONAL BAZAAR

The event marks the 60th anniversary of the Foundation. Under the message "Shop Global, Help Local," visitors can discover items representing different countries and cultures while supporting local livelihoods and communities.

SMX Convention Center, Aura, Taguig City Nov 29, 9AM to 7PM

EMBAJADA DE ESPAÑA EN FILIPINAS · aecid · ASESORÍA DE EDUCACIÓN ACCIÓN EDUCATIVA EXTERIOR · Instituto Cervantes