Entity Presentation (We are)

The mission of Unit EMPL C.1 is to oversee the implementation of EU law on workers' individual rights and on their collective rights to information and consultation in companies.

The unit aims to

(1) ensure correct transposition and implementation of EU law in a wide range of areas including information on individual employment conditions, working time, fixed-term, part-time and temporary agency work, protection of young people at work, and collective rights including European Works Councils, information and consultation of workers and protection of workers in the case of insolvency, transfer of undertakings, or collective dismissals as well as working conditions in certain transport and mobile sectors (maritime, fisheries, inland waterways, etc); and

(2) evaluate and review the application of EU law, and develop legislative proposals for new or modernised legislation, on the basis of impact assessments and taking into account the evolution of jurisprudence.

Job Presentation (We propose)

Monitor implementation of EU law in the area of labour law, in particular with regard to non-standard forms of work relationships (e.g. fixed-term work) and collective rights. This involves drafting implementation and evaluation reports, preparing questionnaires, organising meetings with Member State experts and, when necessary, preparing legislative proposals.

Monitor compliance of national legislation with EU law in the above-mentioned domains. This involves analysing and processing complaints and petitions, handling infringements, answering correspondence and providing contributions to Commission observations on cases before the Court of Justice of the EU.

Inform and discuss with Member States, social partners, and the wider public about developments in the field of labour law in seminars, conferences and working groups.

Jobholder Profile (We look for)

We are looking for a legal officer with experience in EU Labour Law.

The tasks include:

- To draft proposals of EU Labour Law.
- To monitor compliance with Labour Law acquis.
- To disseminate knowledge and address horizontal issues from the Labour Law perspective.

See detailed job description attached to this vacancy notice.

Selection criteria:

Diploma

university degree or professional training or professional experience of an equivalent level in the field(s): Law

Professional experience

Background in law

Good knowledge of EU law and institutions, and in particular of EU social law

Good analytical skills

Good communication, presentation and drafting skills capacity to establish contacts with external stakeholders in an international environment

Language(s) necessary for the performance of duties

The SNE must have knowledge of two Community languages. For the execution of these duties the knowledge of English is required.

Eligibility criteria

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008) 6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision).

Under the terms of the SNE Decision, you need to comply with the following eligibility criteria at the starting date of the secondment:

- Professional experience: at least three years of professional experience in administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions which are equivalent to those of function group AD.
- Seniority: having worked for at least one full year (12 months) with your current employer on a permanent or contract basis.
