Entity Presentation (We are)

We offer an interesting and challenging job in Directorate-General Financial Stability, Financial Services and Capital Market Union (DG FISMA), tasked with ensuring stable and globally competitive financial markets in the interest of businesses and consumers and in order to promote growth and job creation.

Unit E2 monitors financial sectors of Member States with the aim of detecting financial stability risks and formulating policy measures in support of the savings and investment union and of policy responses to any other financial sector issues.

Job Presentation (We offer)

- A dynamic and challenging international working environment in a diverse team of motivated economists and lawyers.
- She/he will monitor, analyse and report on key economic and financial developments in selected Member States. Special attention is paid to the banking sector and its supervision and to the analysis of economic effects of financial regulation.
- She/he will also contribute to the implementation of European Semester priorities, to the implementation of Recovery and Resilience Plans as well as to the recent Commission wide Savings and Investment Union project.
- The job involves regular interactions with other Commission services, EU institutions (ECB, ESM, EBRD), national authorities and private stakeholders including banks and other financial institutions.
- A full set of learning and training opportunities are offered, targeted to the needs of the job.

Jobholder Profile (We look for)

The successful candidate should have the following profile:

- At least 3 years of experience in applied macroeconomic and/or financial analysis.
- Experience in banking, other financial regulation or accounting is a plus. Knowledge of EU policies and legislation within the area of Banking Union, Capital Markets Union, NPL resolution, macro-prudential surveillance, insolvency law, sustainable finance, digital finance would be appreciated.
- Good drafting skills in English are essential.

Eligibility criteria

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008) 6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision).

Under the terms of the SNE Decision, you need to comply with the following eligibility criteria at the starting date of the secondment:

- Professional experience: at least three years of professional experience in administrative, legal, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions which are equivalent to those of function group AD.

- Seniority: having worked for at least one full year (12 months) with your current employer on a permanent or contract basis.
- Employer: must be a national, regional or local administration or an intergovernmental public organisation (IGO); exceptionally and following a specific derogation, the Commission may accept applications where your employer is a public sector body (e.g., an agency or regulatory institute), university or independent research institute.
- Linguistic skills: thorough knowledge of one of the EU languages and a satisfactory knowledge of another EU language to the extent necessary for the performance of the duties. If you come from a third country, you must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of the EU language necessary for the performance of your duties.

Conditions of secondment

During the full duration of your secondment, you must remain employed and remunerated by your employer and covered by your (national) social security system.

You shall exercise your duties within the Commission under the conditions as set out by aforementioned SNE Decision and be subject to the rules on confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest as defined therein.

In case the position is published with allowances, these can only be granted when you fulfil the conditions provided for in Article 17 of the SNE decision.

Staff posted in a European Union Delegation are required to have a security clearance (up to SECRET UE/EU SECRET level according to Commission Decision \(EU, Euratom\) 2015/444 of 13 March 2015). It is up to you to launch the vetting procedure before getting the secondment confirmation.

Submission of applications and selection procedure

If you are interested, please follow the instructions given by your employer on how to apply.

The European Commission only accepts applications which have been submitted through the Permanent Representation / Diplomatic Mission to the EU of your country, the EFTA Secretariat or through the channel(s) it has specifically agreed to. Applications received directly from you or your employer will not be taken into consideration.

You should draft your CV in English, French or German using the Europass CV format (Create your Europass CV | Europass). It must mention your nationality.

Please do not add any other documents (such as copy of passport, copy of degrees or certificate of professional experience, etc.). If necessary, these will be requested at a later stage.

Processing of personal data

The Commission will ensure that candidates' personal data are processed as required by Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council ⁽¹⁾. This applies in particular to the confidentiality and security of such data. Before applying, please read the attached privacy statement.

⁽¹⁾ Regulation (EU) 2018/1725 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 23 October 2018 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data by the Union institutions, bodies, offices and agencies and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Regulation (EC) No 45/2001 and Decision No 1247/2002/EC (OJ L 295, 21.11.2018, p. 39)
