

EEAS Vacancy Notice

Seconded National Expert in the Civilian Planning and Conduct Capability (MD.CPCC)

Rule of Law/Criminal Justice and Prosecution Expert in the Coordination and Horizontal Affairs Division, DMD.CPCC.1

COST-FREE

AD level post

Job no. 431017

We are:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the High Representative for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy in the exercise of his mandate to conduct and implement an effective and coherent EU Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP), in representing the EU and in chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the High Representative in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat General of the European Parliament.

The Civilian Planning and Conduct Capability (MD.CPCC) is the permanent structure supporting the Civilian Operations Commander. The Civilian Operations Commander is the overall commander at the strategic level of currently 14 civilian CSDP crisis management missions and provides strategic guidance and direction to the Heads of Mission. The Civilian Operations Commander reports directly to the High Representative and through him to the Council of the EU. Under the political control and strategic direction of the Political and Security Committee and the overall authority of the High Representative, the Civilian Operations Commander ensures the effective planning and conduct of civilian CSDP crisis management operations, as well as the proper implementation of all mission-related tasks as well as the discharge of the duty of care.

We propose:

The post of a "cost-free" Seconded National Expert (SNE) for the position of Rule of Law/Criminal Justice and Prosecution Expert. The successful candidate will join the Horizontal Affairs section of the aforementioned division, which is staffed with thematic experts in different fields of work related to the implementation of civilian CSDP missions' mandates.

Functions and Duties:

Under the authority of the Head of Division, the Seconded National Expert is expected to perform the following tasks:

- Provide subject matter expertise and advice on Rule of Law/Criminal Justice from a practitioner's perspective in support of the operational planning and conduct of civilian CSDP missions, notably by providing specific input to drafting of CONOPS and OPLAN, as well as to the revision of operational planning documents.
- Develop standards and good practice for civilian CSDP missions in the field of Rule of Law/Criminal Justice and act as one of the CPCC focal points in this domain with a particular focus on prosecution.

- Contribute to strategic reviews, assessments and refocusing of CSDP missions from a Rule of Law/Criminal Justice and practitioner's perspective.
- Be the focal point on accountability files in CPCC, i.e. provide advice, participate in related internal and external coordination meetings, and prepare analytical notes, reports, briefing notes, and speeches for CPCC and EEAS management.
- Prepare and take part in subject matter discussions in Council working parties and committees, notably the Committee for Civilian Aspects of Crisis Management, the Political and Security Committee, Coreper and the Council.
- Explore and develop increased cooperation between Eurojust and CSDP missions as well as between CPCC and Eurojust.
- Coordinate the network of mission Rule of Law advisors as well as the organization of their annual meeting as one of the CPCC focal points.
- Maintain contacts with relevant services within the EEAS, including SECDEFPOL, PCM, the EU Military Staff as well as the EEAS Legal Division and the European Commission.
- Maintain contact with relevant international stakeholders (such as the UN, OSCE, African Union, Council of Europe and other international organisations).
- Maintain contact with representatives of Member States and contributing Third States.
- Contribute to lessons learned processes.
- Contribute to the selection of mission personnel.
- Contribute to the development and delivery of training in the field of expertise;
- Carry out any other task assigned by the Head of Division.

We are looking for:

The European External Action Service (EEAS) is seeking a dynamic, proactive and highly motivated colleague with strong analytical and networking skills to occupy the position of Rule of Law/Criminal Justice Expert (SNE). The candidate should have a good understanding of EU policy-making and decision-making processes, and an understanding of inter-institutional relations as well as have relevant experience in the areas of responsibility. He/she will have to work in an international and multicultural environment in close synergy with Member States and EU institutions.

Legal basis:

- This vacancy is to be filled in accordance with the EEAS Decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy HR DEC(2014) 01 of 04/02/2014 establishing the rules applicable to National Experts seconded to the European External Action Service.

Eligibility criteria:

Candidates must:

- a) Be drawn from public administrations in Member States, from international organisations or, only in exceptional cases and with prior authorisation from other sources;

- b) Have at least three years' full-time experience of administrative, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions equivalent to those of function groups AD or AST as defined in the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union and the Conditions of Employment of other servants of the Union¹ or, where justified in the interests of the service, professional training of an equivalent level.²;
- c) Have a thorough knowledge of English for the performance of his/her duties;

- Contribute to the development and delivery of training in the field of expertise;
- Contribute to the identification and selection of mission personnel;
- Carry out any other task assigned by the Head of Division.

C. Languages:

- The successful candidate should be able to work in at least one of the official CSDP languages fluently (EN or FR) and have a basic knowledge of the second official working language.

D. Personal qualities:

- Be a motivated and flexible team player;
- Have the ability to adapt quickly to new situations and deal with new challenges;
- Have the ability to maintain the highest standards of personal integrity, impartiality and self-discipline.

Equal opportunities

- The EEAS is committed to an equal opportunities policy for all its staff and applicants. The EEAS is committed to promoting gender equality and to preventing discrimination on any grounds. It actively welcomes applications from all qualified candidates from diverse backgrounds and from the broadest possible geographical basis amongst the EU Member States. We aim at a service which is truly representative of society, where each staff member feels respected, is able to give their best and can develop their full potential.

- Candidates with disabilities are invited to contact SNE-CSDP@eeas.europa.eu in order to accommodate any special needs and provide assistance to ensure the possibility to pass the selection procedure in equality of opportunities with other candidates. If a candidate with a disability is selected for a vacant post, the EEAS is committed to providing reasonable accommodation in accordance with Art 1d.4 of the Staff Regulations.

Conditions of secondment

SNEs shall remain in the service of their employer throughout the period of secondment and shall continue to be paid by that employer.

Duration of the secondment: Initial period up to two years, renewable up to 4 years.

The EEAS will cover:

- costs of professional travels (missions) incurred by the SNE posted in the EEAS HQ;
- accident insurance 24/7 for SNE (not family members).

Other expenses such as removal costs, allowances, salary, insurance, schooling (while the SNE maintains the right to enrol the children in an European School Type I)³ and costs related to the enrolment to the Interinstitutional nurseries or the After-school centre managed by the early childhood centre of the European Commission shall not be covered by the EEAS. However, in case the SNE makes use of these two facilities for their dependent children, the EEAS shall recover any invoiced cost (including the institutional and the parental contribution, estimated at approximately EUR 18,000 per year and per child) from the Seconded National Expert concerned on a yearly basis.
