

CATERING CONTRACT

Object of the service:

The Spanish Embassy in Athens, raises the need to complement the kitchen service of the Residence through the allocation of external resources to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, European Union and Cooperation.

A contract for the catering service is established, on a unit price basis, so that the hours are consumed according to the actual needs arising from the representation events. The maximum hourly rate is set by the market prices for such services in Athens.

This service will be provided in 22 monthly instalments over two years, 11 monthly instalments per year, due to the fact that there are no representation events during the holiday period in August.

These details are given below for the duration of the contract, excluding extensions:
