

ESDC Vacancy Notice

Seconded National Expert at the European Security and Defence College

Project Manager/Training Manager (Military)

CO-FINANCED

AD level post
Job No 303111

EXTENDED DEADLINE

Who we are

As set out in Council Decision (CFSP) 2020/1515 of 19 October 2020, the mission of the European Security and Defence College (ESDC) is to provide training and education in the field of the EU's Common Security and Defence Policy (CSDP) in the wider context of the Common Foreign and Security Policy (CFSP) at European level in order to develop and promote a common understanding of CFSP and CSDP among civilian and military personnel and to identify and disseminate best practice in relation to various CFSP and CSDP issues through its training and education activities.

The ESDC works under the overall responsibility of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy (HR). The European External Action Service (EEAS) supports the HR in the exercise of his mandate, which consists of conducting and implementing an effective and coherent EU CFSP, representing the EU and chairing the Foreign Affairs Council. It also supports the HR in his capacity as Vice-President of the Commission with regard to his responsibilities within the Commission in the external relations field, including the coordination of other aspects of the EU's external action. The EEAS works in close cooperation with the General Secretariat of the Council, the services of the Commission and the Secretariat of the European Parliament.

What we are offering

The post of a 'co-financed' Seconded National Expert (SNE) as project manager/training manager, who will report to the Head of the ESDC. The SNE's key tasks will be to support all the military aspects of training and education, in particular the 'European Initiative for the Exchange of Young Officers, inspired by Erasmus' (also known as 'Military Erasmus'), the work of the Implementation Group, the EU Military Secondary Schools Forum (EUMSSF), the Sectoral Qualification on Framework for the Military Officer Profession Executive Group (SQF-MILEG), the European Higher Military Education/EU War Colleges Initiative, the international Military Academic Forum (iMAF) and the European Union Military Academies Commandants' Seminars (EUMACS).

Functions and duties

Under the authority of the management of the ESDC, the SNE is expected to perform the following tasks:

- support the ESDC Secretariat all the military aspects of training and education, in particular the 'European Initiative for the Exchange of Young Officers, inspired by Erasmus' (also known as 'Military Erasmus'), the work of the Implementation Group and the War Colleges Initiative;
- organise, assist and lead training courses, seminars and conferences with a focus on, but not limited to, the military aspects of CSDP education and training;
- assist with the ESDC's contribution to the EU Military Training Group;
- take on responsibility for all aspects of files and projects assigned to them, throughout the entire project cycle, including, but not limited to, financial aspects, project planning, drafting of briefings, memos and background papers, mission requests, invitations and meetings, brief reports, minutes and summaries, and follow-up;
- assist with the organisation of Advanced Modular Training (AMT) for military and civilian personnel working in EU crisis management structures, missions and operations;
- contribute to the ESDC's lessons-learnt process;
- proactively develop and implement programmes and initiatives, plans, partnerships, activities and training in the area of CSDP, with a specific focus on military aspects;
- actively engage with multilateral, regional and bilateral partners, as well as with civil society and academia, when identifying best practices and gaps in CSDP training and education;
- contribute to the drafting of policy documents;
- contribute to ESDC publications on the ESDC website and social media;
- contribute to and develop evaluation and quality assurance tools;
- coordinate ESDC reports (e.g. annual report) and develop, maintain and monitor benchmarks and report results;
- coordinate teams and/or task groups (depending on the needs of the ESDC);
- leverage analysis to identify trends, insights and gaps in CSDP training and education, identify areas of opportunity with the greatest impact, and propose and implement measures for the improvement of CSDP training and education;
- contribute to the development of the ESDC as an inclusive and diverse workplace, including with regard to gender equality, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability and ethnicity;
- perform additional tasks, upon instruction by the hierarchy.

What we are looking for

A dynamic, flexible and proactive colleague with a strong sense of service, knowledge and understanding of the theories, concepts and approaches relating to the common security and defence culture, best practice and partnerships. The successful candidate will have a keen ability to identify gaps in existing military training and will be able to develop training courses, workshops and tools to efficiently address those gaps. They will also have the relevant knowledge and expertise to address the linkages, opportunities and risks relating to peace, security and defence.

Legal basis

In line with Council Decision (CFSP) 2020/1515 of 19 October 2020 establishing a European Security and Defence College (ESDC), this vacancy is to be filled in accordance with Decision of the High Representative of the Union for Foreign Affairs and Security Policy HR DEC(2014) 01 of 4 February 2014 establishing the rules applicable to National Experts seconded to the European External Action Service.

Eligibility criteria

Candidates must:

- (a) be drawn from public administrations in Member States, from international organisations or – in exceptional cases only and with prior authorisation – from other sources;
- (b) have at least five years' full-time experience in administrative, scientific, technical, advisory or supervisory functions equivalent to those of function groups AD or AST as defined in the Staff Regulations of Officials of the European Union and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union¹, or, where justified in the interests of the service, professional training of an equivalent level²;
- (c) remain in the service of their employer throughout the period of secondment and be paid by that employer;
- (d) have national security clearance at a minimum level of EU-SECRET/SECRET-UE for the functions that they will carry out. Such clearance must be obtained from the competent authorities before secondment to the European External Action Service and must be valid

¹ Regulation (EEC, Euratom, ECSC) No 259/68 of the Council of 29 February 1968 (OJ L 56, 4.3.1968, p.1) and successive amendments.

² Staff Regulations of Officials (SR) and the Conditions of Employment of Other Servants of the European Union (CEOS). For reference, see: <https://eur-lex.europa.eu/legal-content/EN/TXT/?qid=1570023902133&uri=CELEX:01962R0031-20190101> for the entire period of the secondment, failing which the EEAS reserves the right to refuse the secondment;

- (e) remain subject to the social security legislation applicable to the public administration, international administration or entity which employs them and which will assume responsibility for expenses incurred abroad. In the case of postings to an EU Delegation, the employer must certify that the SNE is covered for medical expenses incurred at the place of secondment, as well as for the cost of repatriation on health grounds, throughout the full period of secondment;
- (f) ensure that there is no conflict of interest and that they safeguard, at all times, the independence and coherence of EU foreign policy as well as the integrity and confidentiality of EU documentation, information and procedures.

Selection criteria

A. Qualifications and experience required

- University degree or equivalent level of education;
- Five years' full-time professional experience in the field of training and education and/or research;
- Experience and knowledge of EU policies, values and priorities, including but not limited to CFSP and CSDP, would be an advantage;
- Knowledge of military crisis management and of planning processes in the field of CSDP would be an advantage;
- Experience in working in multicultural, international teams;
- Experience in the organisation of sustainable conferences and seminars;
- Experience in agile, inclusive and gender-responsive working methods in diverse, multinational teams, using the latest ICT tools;
- Successful completion of at least one ESDC course would be an advantage.

B. Skills required

- Ideally, an interdisciplinary education in and/or knowledge of political sciences, law, European and international studies, social sciences and/or military sciences;
- Excellent ability to maintain diplomatic relations and to ensure representation and communication in a complex, multicultural environment;
- Excellent capacity to create constructive working relations with governmental and non-governmental entities, including military bodies, law enforcement agencies, government representatives and civil society organisations;
- Strong drafting, communication and analytical skills combined with sound judgement;
- Ability to remain objective in complex scenarios and to display sensitivity;
- Good organisational skills, the ability to work under pressure to tight deadlines, and the ability to manage multiple tasks and unexpected demands;

- Ability to work professionally as a member of the ESDC, in mixed-composition task forces and working groups, in an interesting and challenging environment;
- Good computer skills are essential, in particular in word processing, spreadsheet and presentation software, internet/intranet and email systems; knowledge of other IT tools would be an asset.

C. Languages

- A thorough knowledge of one EU working language and a satisfactory knowledge of another is required. In practical terms, in order to perform the required duties, this means an excellent command of written and spoken English, and in particular, good report-writing skills. A good knowledge of written and spoken French is desirable.

D. Personal qualities

- Maintains the highest standards of personal integrity, impartiality and self-discipline. SNEs must exercise the greatest discretion in relation to all facts and information that become known to them in the performance of their duties.
- Is dynamic, motivated and flexible.
- Is able to adapt quickly to new situations and deal with new challenges, including missions in conflict areas.

Application procedure:

Candidates must submit their CV and cover letter in English or French, as a PDF or Word document, using the European CV format, which can be found online at: <https://europa.eu/europass/en/create-europass-cv>
