Entity Presentation (We are)

DGT's Irish language Department, which specialises in the translation of communicative and legislative texts in an expanding number of fields as required by the Commission's requesting services. The Department also actively participates in other DGT initiatives such as the Juvenes Translatores competition, European Masters in Translation network, etc.

Job Presentation (We propose)

The Department supplies translations into Irish of legislative texts in many specialist subject areas. The Department also translates to a lesser extent communicative material. Most source documents are drafted in English and to a lesser extent in French, but we are required to translate from other official languages as required. The Unit also evaluates and revises documents translated into Irish by freelance translators.

Jobholder Profile (We look for)

An Irish-language translator able to work from English into Irish. Knowledge of legal translation and one or more other official, enlargement or candidate languages would be an advantage. The translator would also be required to revise the work of his colleagues in the Department as well as evaluate freelance translations, revise them where necessary and provide feedback. Other tasks may be assigned to the translator when necessary in line with the DG's and Department's requirements (for example, terminology or language technology tasks, representing the Department at particular meetings or events).

Computer literacy (Internet, databases and translation tools) would be a distinct advantage.

Eligibility criteria

The secondment will be governed by the Commission Decision C(2008) 6866 of 12/11/2008 laying down rules on the secondment to the Commission of national experts and national experts in professional training (SNE Decision).

Under the terms of the SNE Decision, you need to comply with the following eligibility criteria at the starting date of the secondment:

- Employer: must be a national, regional or local administration or an intergovernmental public organisation (IGO); exceptionally and following a specific derogation, the Commission may accept applications where your employer is a public sector body (e.g., an agency or regulatory institute), university or independent research institute.

If you come from a third country, you must produce evidence of a thorough knowledge of the EU language necessary for the performance of his duties.

Conditions of secondment

During the full duration of your secondment, you must remain employed and remunerated by your employer and covered by your (national) social security system.

You shall exercise your duties within the Commission under the conditions as set out by aforementioned SNE Decision and be subject to the rules on confidentiality, loyalty and absence of conflict of interest as defined therein.

In case the position is published with allowances, these can only be granted when you fulfil the conditions provided for in Article 17 of the SNE decision.

Staff posted in a European Union Delegation are required to have a security clearance (up to SECRET UE/EU SECRET level according to Commission Decision \(EU, Euratom\) 2015/444 of 13 March 2015). It is up to you to launch the vetting procedure before getting the secondment confirmation.
